On Monday June 4, a Press Conference was given at Parc des Princes in PARIS where were attending Nasser Al-Khelaïfi, chairman and chief executive officer of Paris Saint-Germain and Forward Hatem Ben Arfa announcing the signature of a two-year contract, tying him to the Club until 30 June 2018. The 29-year-old is Paris Saint-Germain's first new signing for the 2016-17 season. He is a French international, with 15 caps to his name.

He is a five-time French league champion. After returning from Newcastle United, he proved a hit at OGC Nice last season, scoring 17 goals and providing six assists in Ligue 1. Performances like these saw him recalled to the French national team and nominated for the UNFP Ligue 1 Player of the Season award. The attacker has played 25 times in the UEFA Champions League, with Olympique Lyonnais and Olympique de Marseille, and is looking forward to getting back into Europe's premiere club competition in 2016-17; this time wearing Rouge et Bleu.

Hatem Ben Arfa on Friday June 1, after putting pen to paper at Club headquarters, said : 'PSG has always been a very special team for me, so to wear this jersey at the Parc des Princes is a childhood dream. It is an honour that the Club is giving me this opportunity, making this dream come true. I will do my utmost to represent my new team to the best of my abilities and to make our supporters proud. Finally, I would like to thank OGC Nice, who helped me get back to enjoying my football again and gave me another chance to show French fans what I am capable of on the pitch'.

Nasser Al-Khelaïfi, Paris Saint-Germain Chairman and CEO said : 'For numerous years now, Hatem has been a major player in French football and was one of the most brilliant players in Ligue 1 last season. Our fans have been anticipating the arrival of a player of his style and I know he will provide them with a lot of excitement on the field. With his support, Paris Saint-Germain reaffirms its commitment to develop a spectacular style of football'.
